

perfin die is listed Tilles The above in the catalogue, without an identity. I recently came it an advertising across on hope this picture postcard and that clues card may help on one of our members to solve the puzzle of the user.

The a K.E. VII $\frac{1}{2}d$ postcard bears green stamp, and was London October 7th 1910 address Lancashire. from on to an in The picture side depicts the Cemetery of the Capuchin Monks the commentary "To make room in the burial place with of the bodies buried longest Friars. that have been were placed in this vault. which contains earth brought from Jerusalem. When these bodies fall bones collected for into decay the are decorating the walls of the vault".

The picture shows skulls and bones stacked the walls against together ceilings and stuck the in and designs, to patterns with seemingly decaying bodies in Monks garb precariously propped up against them.

first clue footnote the picture gives our and to us reads. "ONE OF THE 1000 ILLUSTRATIONS APPEARING IN 'THE WONDERS OF WORLD'. 1. 7d". The Part perfin then clearly belongs the publisher of this magazine or booklet.

The of the card bears printed message reverse a in green ink imitation of handwriting reading: 'Have Part you seen 1 of "The Wonders of the World"? magnificent! It is and signed 'K.C.H'.

Can anyone therefore solve the mystery from these clues? I look forward with interest to any suggestions.
